

A 3x2 grid of six apples, each with a different color scheme (red, yellow, green, orange, etc.) and a small black dot in the center, representing a color calibration target. The apples are arranged in two columns and three rows. The background is a light gray with a subtle grid pattern.